

A Pilot Study Program made possible by the HIV and Aging Research Consortium, a collaboration between the Nathan Shock Centers of Excellence (NSC),
the Claude D. Pepper Older Americans Independence Centers (OAICs, aka “Pepper Centers”),
the Evelyn F. McKnight Brain Institutes (MBIs),
and the Centers for AIDS Research

Webinar October 22, 2021

Register Today!

NEW RFA for 2022

The purpose of this program is to promote multidisciplinary research in Geoscience and HIV by bridging research excellence between CFAR, OAIC, NSC, and MBI and developing the next generation of HIV Geroscience Researchers.
Proposals with an emphasis on Geoscience and its application in HIV will be the

DEADLINE FOR CONCEPT PROPOSALS:

December 3rd, 2021

Eligibility: Any new stage investigator or any stage Gerontology faculty who is new to HIV research. Post-doctoral fellows must be faculty on or before July 1, 2022 to apply.

2-4 pilot grants will be funded.

Up to $40,000 total costs per grant.

For more information contact:

Mary Thielen

mthielen@uabmc.edu

Lydia Drumright

lnd23@uw.edu

Click here to download the RFA